

David Robertshaw

University Governor

UTC Derby Pride Park

David Robertshaw	Head of Prequalifying Healthcare	University of Derby
Personal Profile: David is a Registered Nurse and leads the discipline of Prequalifying Healthcare at the University of Derby. This team specialise in delivering workforce and employer-focused academic programmes and apprenticeships in partnership with key stakeholders. David is keen to promote widening participation routes into higher education and has championed flexible routes of access to University. Beginning his career in intensive care nursing in North Nottinghamshire, David has worked for the University of Derby since 2013 in various roles. He has a range of professional interests, stemming from academic and research work in massive open online courses, online learning, social change, and dementia. David is very interested in technology enhanced learning and the use of creative approaches to learning (and developing creativity). Skills are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Nursing</li> <li>• Teaching, learning and assessment</li> <li>• Healthcare theory and practice including clinical skills</li> <li>• Pedagogic design</li> <li>• Programme design, approval, and validation</li> <li>• Quality assurance</li> <li>• Research and evidence-based analysis</li> <li>• Coaching and mentoring</li> </ul>		